Crystal Cove State Park

Crystal Cove offers 3.2 miles of beach and 2,400 acres of wilderness. Not only that, just offshore is an 1,100-acre underwater park! You'll find diverse habitat and incredible places to scuba dive and snorkel.

2

Morro Bay State Park

This park is home to a beautiful bay habitat featuring a saltwater marsh and a colorful marina. Visit the park's museum to learn about local Native American history and snap a pic with the park's most notable landmark: Morro Rock.

3

Half Moon Bay State Beach

Here you'll find four sandy, picturesque miles of beach ideal for sunbathing, picnicking and fishing, plus a campground for those who wish to extend their visit!

4

Mono Lake Tufa State Natural Reserve

The unique landscape around this salty, million-year-old lake is an untraditional "beachfront" location. Freshwater springs and alkaline lake water have interacted to form these unusual "tufa towers" of calcium carbonate!
