In order for a bill to become a law, it must be introduced, be passed out of policy and fiscal committees and the Floor of the house of origin, repeat the committee process in the other legislative house, and be signed into law by the Governor. Below is a brief summary of the legislative process.

STATE LEGISLATIVE PROCESS

- BILL DRAFTED
  - Introduced in the chamber of origin

- 1ST CHAMBER
  - Committee Hearings
  - Floor Debate

- 2ND CHAMBER
  - Committee Hearings
  - Floor Debate

- GOVERNOR

- LAW

  If changed, the bill is sent back to the chamber of origin for approval or further consideration.

  A vetoed bill goes back to the chamber of origin. If the veto is overridden, the bill moves to the second chamber for its reconsideration. If not, the bill dies.
